

Why 1900 C.E.?

Why 1900 C.E.?

- It's the cut off leading up to World War I
- New technologies emerge
  - Mass production of automobiles
  - Airplanes
  - Radio
- New sciences
- Modern Age

America emerges as a world power

Americanization

- McDonald's
- Starbucks
- Rock 'n' roll

Globalization

Deadliest century in history

- World War I and II
- Genocides
- Mao
- Stalin
- Mexican Revolution
- Russian Civil War
- Korean War
- Vietnam
- Afghanistan

20th Century - The Deadliest in World History

Table 5.1

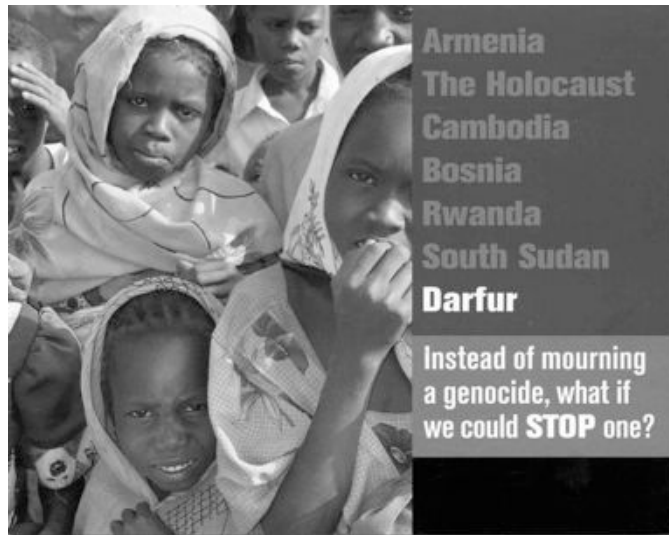

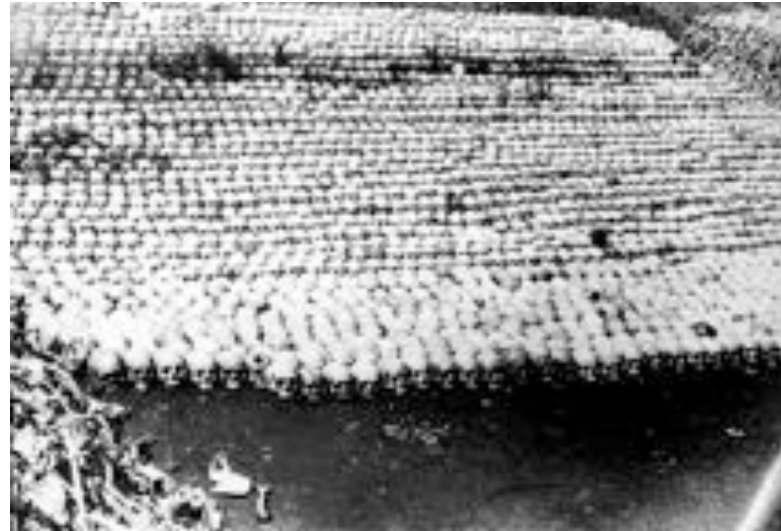

Conflicts steadily cost more in human lives

Period	Conflict-related deaths (millions)	World population, mid-century (millions)	Conflict-related deaths as share of world population (%)
Sixteenth century	1.6	493.3	0.32
Seventeenth century	6.1	579.1	1.05
Eighteenth century	7.0	757.4	0.92
Nineteenth century	19.4	1,172.9	1.65
Twentieth century	109.7	2,519.5	4.35

Source: Conflict deaths data, Sward 1991, 1996; seventeenth century population data, UN 2005-d; other population data, Human Development Report Office interpolation based on Sykes 2004 (table B-10).

Genocides

- Khmer Rouge
- Armenian
- Rwanda
- Darfur

Armenia
The Holocaust
Cambodia
Bosnia
Rwanda
South Sudan
Darfur

Instead of mourning
a genocide, what if we could STOP one?

Effects of World War I

Effects of World War II

Communism

Cold War

Cold War in the Congo

Cold War in Chile

Cold War in Cuba

Indian Independence

Hong Kong given back to China

胡 志 明

中國杭州郵錄生絲廠 814540010

© The East Is Red

Kwame Nkrumah in Ghana

Advancements in Communication

Advancements in Transportation

Nuclear Power (Chernobyl)

Polio Vaccine

Population Growth

Globalization

International Organizations

International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies

World Bank

United Nations (1945)

G20 Summit

EU

OPEC

Cultural Diffusion

International Sports

Terrorism

Comparisons

- Hitler and Stalin
- Marx, Lenin, and Mao's versions of communism
- Russian, Chinese, and Mexican Revolutions
- Soviets in Afghanistan
- United States in Vietnam

What Changed?

- Communistic revolutions
- Decolonization
- Rights of women